MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Signage on Route 123

On 18 October 1989, I received a telephone call from Alex Verzoza of the Fairfax County Transportation Department. He advised that despite the new "no outlet" signs erected at the entrance to Savile Lane, truck drivers are still turning into that area mistaking it as an entrance to the CIA. He suggests erecting another sign there which indicates that the CIA entrance is located at the next signal. I advised him to go ahead and that we preferred that option to erecting the larger sign on Route 123. He said the new sign should be erected within one month and  on Savile Lane would be notified.
